

PEOPLE, REMUNERATION AND DIVERSITY COMMITTEE CHARTER

The Board of Air New Zealand Limited (“the Board”) has established the People, Remuneration and Diversity Committee (“the Committee”) which is governed by this Charter.

Purpose

The purpose of the Committee is to advise and assist the Board in its responsibilities with respect to oversight of People and Culture. The Committee will have specific responsibilities in respect of: salary and other remuneration and benefits for the Directors, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Executive Officer’s direct reports; share based remuneration and incentive schemes; and for Diversity and Inclusion.

Role

- To oversee the Company’s people-related policies, procedures and processes, towards an outcome of a sound and healthy organisation and culture;
- To ensure appropriate remuneration frameworks operate for Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, and direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer;
- To ensure appropriate succession plans are in place for direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer; and
- To set diversity targets and monitor progress against these.

Responsibilities

The Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Board, on:

- Remuneration policy for Directors and the Chief Executive Officer and the direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer;
- Salary and other remuneration and benefits for the Chief Executive Officer, including the setting of performance targets and performance evaluation;
- Remuneration for the non-executive directors (including recommendations subject to shareholder approval);
- Share-based remuneration or incentive schemes, including, but not limited to, the structure of such schemes and the allocation of shares or interests in shares;
- Disclosure of Chief Executive Officer remuneration as legally required.

The Committee shall review and approve:

- Salary and other remuneration and benefits for the direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer, the setting of their performance targets, and performance evaluation;

- The Company's annual salary budget for Individual Employment Agreement employees;
- The overall (or a range) mandate set for Collective Employment Agreements, although management will maintain responsibility for specific negotiation strategy through the bargaining period. Any material changes to the mandate through bargaining will require further PRDC approval.
- Participants in share-based remuneration or incentive schemes;
- The structure of company-wide incentive plans or variable pay schemes including, but not limited to, the Short-Term Incentive Plan and Company Performance Bonus, and the exercise of any discretion associated with making or withholding cash payments under these;
- The selection and engagement of independent consultants for the review of executive and director remuneration; and
- Succession plans for the Chief Executive Officer's direct reports.

The Committee shall establish, review and approve:

- Criteria by which a sound and healthy organisation and culture will be assessed. Specific initiatives, and progress against these criteria will be reviewed regularly.
- Measurable objectives on diversity and ensure progress is reviewed regularly and disclosed in the Company's Annual Report.
- The Committee shall also undertake a role in the recurring resolutions outlined in the Appendix.

Composition and Appointment

Membership/Appointment/Qualifications

The Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall consist of at least two (2), and not more than seven (7), members, including the Chair of the Board.

All members of the Committee must be non-executive directors and a majority must be independent directors.

Chair

The Chair shall be appointed by the Board and must be an independent director and may not be the Chair of the Board.

Authority

Unless specifically mandated, the Committee has recommendatory powers only.

The Committee is authorised by the Board to undertake any activity pursuant to its functions and responsibilities defined in this Charter or otherwise assigned to it by the Board. It is authorised to seek any information it requires from any employee and all employees shall be directed to cooperate with any request made by the Committee.

The Committee shall have the authority of the Board to obtain legal or other independent professional advice, and to secure the attendance at meetings of third parties with the relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary.

The Committee shall not have nor exercise any power that the Board is prohibited from delegating under s130 of the Companies Act 1993.

The Committee has authority to sub-delegate. The Committee must ensure any activities outside the scope of the Committee are referred to the appropriate responsible body.

Administration

Secretary

The Chief People Officer shall act as Secretary of the Committee.

Meetings

The Committee will hold at least three (3) meetings per year.

Any Board member may request, through the Chair of the Board, that the Committee convene to address any matter within the purview of the Committee that is of serious concern.

The Committee Chair shall also call a meeting of the Committee if so requested by any Committee member.

The Secretary, in conjunction with the Committee Chair, shall draw up the Agenda.

The Agenda and Committee papers shall be distributed to members at least one (1) week prior to each meeting.

If the Chair is absent from a meeting, the members of the Committee participating in that meeting shall elect a Chair for the meeting from their number.

The meeting can be held through any means that allow for immediate audio or audio-visual communication.

Quorum

A quorum shall be more than half of the members of the Committee.

Conflicts of Interest

A member of the Committee who has an interest in any matter being determined by the Committee shall excuse themselves from the relevant discussions and shall not vote on that matter.

The Companies Act anticipates Directors making certain decisions in respect of their own remuneration or other benefits, and they are not expected to abstain from discussions or decisions on those matters. In such self-interested situations, Directors are required to certify as to the fairness to the company of any Director remuneration or other benefit they approve.

Attendees

Meetings shall be attended by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief People Officer, and others as appropriate, at the discretion and invitation of the Committee. Adequate notice shall be given to those to be invited.

Invitees may be requested to withdraw from the meeting at any time by the meeting Committee Chair.

Written Resolutions

A resolution in writing, signed or assented to by more than half of the members of the Committee, is as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents (including transmissions by facsimile or e-mail or other similar means of written communication) in like form, each signed or assented to by one (1) or more members of the Committee.

Records

The Secretary shall ensure minutes, resolutions, papers and other records of the Committee are retained in accordance with any applicable policies or guidelines issued by the General Counsel & Company Secretary.

Review

The Committee shall undertake a formal review of its objectives and activities regularly and recommend any consequential changes to this Charter to the Board.

The Committee's objectives and activities shall also be subject to Board review, and review by such other parties (including senior management) as the Board may determine.

Reporting

Reporting to the Board

The Chair of the Committee shall make a report to the Board after each Committee meeting on the findings and recommendations of the Committee.

Annual Report

The Committee is to prepare an annual report to the Board. The Report is to address all matters relevant to the Committee's role and responsibilities.

Minutes

The Committee must ensure that minutes are kept of all proceedings at its meetings.

Minutes shall be confirmed at the subsequent Committee meeting and/or signed as correct by the Chair of the meeting.

Approved minutes shall be made available to all directors and attendees of the meeting, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, and to other parties as the Committee Chair or the Board directs.

This Charter was last confirmed by the Board of Air New Zealand Limited on 25 September 2024.
