 On 30 March 2016, the Company announced that it was exploring options with respect to its shareholding in Virgin Australia. The Group's representative resigned from the Virgin Australia Board of Directors with effect from that date. The Group no longer had the ability to exercise significant influence over Virgin Australia and ceased to apply the equity method of accounting to the investment from that date. Upon cessation of equity accounting the Group recognised a loss of $2 million within the profit and loss (which has been excluded from the table above). The majority of the investment was disposed in June 2016 with a holding of 2.5% being retained at 30 June 2016.

14.3 Significant features of operating performance:

Refer to the media release.

14.4 Segmental results:

Industry Segment

Air New Zealand operates predominantly in one segment, its primary business being the transportation of passengers and cargo on an integrated network of scheduled airline services to, from and within New Zealand. Resource allocation decisions across the network are made to optimise the consolidated Group's financial result.

Directors' Declaration

By resolution of the board, the directors declare that:

- the financial statements together with the notes to the financial statements comply with New Zealand generally accepted accounting practice;
- the financial statements together with the notes to the financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of Air New Zealand Limited and its controlled entities as at 30 June 2016, as represented by the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year ended on that date.

In the directors' opinion, at the date of this declaration there are reasonable grounds to believe that Air New Zealand Limited will be able to pay its debts as and when they become due and payable.

The Corporate Governance Statement is accurate and up to date as at 25 August 2016 and has been approved by the board.

The annexure includes a key to where our corporate governance disclosures can be located.

Date: 26 August 2016

Name of Secretary authorising
lodgement: JOHN HARVEY BLAIR

¹ Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

³ Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes "OR" at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the "OR" at the end of the selection.

(iii) Significant features of operating performance:

Refer to the media release.

(iv) Segmental results:

Industry segment

Air New Zealand operates predominantly in one segment, its primary business being the transportation of passengers and cargo on an integrated network of scheduled airline services to, from and within New Zealand. Resource allocation decisions across the network are made to optimise the consolidated Group's financial result.

Geographical segment

An analysis of revenue by geographic region of original sale is provided below.

	Current Year $NZ'm	Previous Year $NZ'm
Analysis of revenue by geographical region of original sale
New Zealand	2,981	2,917
Australia and Pacific Islands	619	639
United Kingdom and Europe	330	286
Asia	470	381
America	831	702
Total operating revenue	5,231	4,925

The principal non-current assets of the Group are the aircraft fleet which is registered in New Zealand and employed across the worldwide network. Accordingly, there is no reasonable basis for allocating the assets to geographical segments.

(v) Discussion of trends in performance:

Refer to the media release.

(vi) Any other factors which have or are likely to affect the results, including those where the effect could not be quantified:

Refer to the media release.

(l) Audit of financial statements

This report is based on accounts which have been audited. The audit opinion has been attached to the back of the financial statements and contains no qualifications.

(m) Major changes in trends in the business subsequent to the end of the financial year

Refer to the media release.
