

'Think privacy & do the right thing' - Script

Welcome to our privacy centre. We've built this centre to help you understand how we handle your personal information when you interact with us.

Here, you can find out all you need to know about the personal information we collect, use and share about you. You can also find out about the rights you have over the information you've given to us, and about the obligations we have to protect it.

As an international airline, we need to collect personal information about our customers. We use and share this information to offer the best possible air travel experience and to keep our customers and employees, safe and secure.

We also need to protect the personal information you entrust us with.

We know that you will only entrust us with this information if you believe that we'll 'think privacy & do the right thing'. That's our privacy commitment to you and applies no matter where in the world you use our products and services.

Throughout the privacy centre, you can refer to the ask us section at any time to get more information, raise your concerns, make a request or provide feedback.

Thank you
